October 17th, 2017
12:30PM- For immediate release
Contact: Sgt. G. Yotsuya (209) 538-5719

Carlos Macias 27 Yrs.

On 10/14/17 at approximately 8:54 AM, Ceres Officers responded to 1000 Blk. of Sun Meadow Dr. for a man suffering from several stab wounds to the upper body. Through the investigation it was determined that the adult male victim was attacked and stabbed by his adult son, Carlos Macias 27 Yrs. of Ceres. The motive for the attack has not yet been determined. Macias had fled the scene on foot prior to police arrival.

The victim was transported to an area hospital with life threatening upper body injuries to include a pierced heart. He is currently in critical but stable condition.

On 10/14/17 at approx. 1130 PM the Ceres Police Department received a tip that Carlos Macias had returned to the home where the assault had taken place. Officers responded to this home, located and took Macias into custody without incident. He was booked into the county jail on attempted murder charges.

This investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact Detective Bryan Ferreira at (209)538-5616.
